

Playing in one of the United States Golf Association's national championships represents the pinnacle of a golfer's career.

BE A PART OF IT...

experience the excitement, prestige and thrill of competition that comes with playing in a national championship.

If you're an amateur golfer age 25 or older and have a USGA Handicap Index® of 3.4 or lower, you can compete for one of the most prestigious titles in amateur golf — the U.S. Mid-Amateur Championship.

There is an 18-hole qualifying round for the national championship, and the deadline to enter is 5 p.m. (EDT) on July 9, 2014. To apply and to find a qualifying site near you, please visit www.usga.org and click on Championships.

Sept. 6-11, 2014
U.S. Mid-Amateur Championship
Saucon Valley Country Club (Old Course), Bethlehem, Pa.

